

Why Major in Psychology at EKU?

Keep Your Options Open

The Psychology Degree is FLEXIBLE

A Psychology Degree Prepares You for Many Career Opportunities

- ▶ 43% of Recent Graduates are Working in the Mental Health Field
 - Social Service Case Managers; Victim Advocates; Substance-Abuse Counselors
- ▶ 15% of Recent Graduates Work in Business or Human Resources
 - Business Managers; Human Resource Specialists; Trainers
- ▶ Other Popular Jobs for Psychology Majors : Research, Marketing, Advertising, Education
 - Marketing Director; Research Assistant; Advertising Specialist; Teachers

A Psychology Degree Prepares You for Graduate and Professional Schools

- ▶ The Psychology Degree Prepares Students for Popular Master's Degree Programs at EKU:
 - Clinical Psychology, School Psychology, Industrial/Organizational Psychology, General Psychology, Mental Health Counseling, Corrections, Juvenile Justice
- ▶ The Psychology Degree Prepares Students for a variety of Professional Degree Programs
 - Law, Medicine, Optometry, Dentistry
- ▶ The Psychology Degree Prepares Students for Doctoral Programs in Psychology
 - Clinical, Counseling, Social, Experimental, Developmental

The Psychology Program includes 38 hours of Free Electives

- ▶ Program is Flexible: Pursue Second Major or Minor, or Specialized Interests.

Study in an Outstanding Learning Environment

- ▶ 20 Full-Time Faculty, All faculty hold Doctoral Degrees & are Committed to Student Success
 - EKU Foundation Professors; Awards for Excellence in Teaching; Fulbright Scholar
- ▶ Excellent Facilities
 - State-of-the-Art Classrooms & Instructional Technology; Student Computer Lab & Work Areas
 - Small Classes; Personal Attention

Hands-On Learning and Research Opportunities

- ▶ Co-op Program: Explore Career Paths; Earn Money & College Credit for Work Experiences
- ▶ Department is Nationally Recognized for Providing Student Research Opportunities
 - Collaborate with Faculty; Develop Your Own Research Ideas
 - Present Research at Conferences